

POSITION DESCRIPTION
TENURE TRACK, DEPARTMENT OF COUNSELING
REHABILITATION COUNSELING TRAINING PROGRAM
FALL 2009

The Department of Counseling at San Francisco State University is a large, comprehensive counselor education program with 18 full-time equivalent faculty with over 300 students. The Department offers six counseling specialty areas: Rehabilitation, School, Marriage and Family, College, Career, and Gerontology. The Department is accredited by CORE, CACREP, CCTC, and NCATE. San Francisco State University, a member of the California State University system, serves a diverse student body of 29,000 undergraduate and graduate students. The university seeks to promote appreciation of scholarship, freedom and human diversity through excellence in instruction and intellectual accomplishment. SFSU faculty are expected to be effective teachers and demonstrate professional achievement and growth through research, scholarship and creative work.

Rank: Assistant Professor.

Salary: Commensurate with experience.

Start Date: Fall 2009.

Application Review Period: October 1, 2008 until filled.

Minimum requirements:

- An earned doctorate from an accredited institution in Rehabilitation Counseling, Rehabilitation Psychology, Counseling/Clinical Psychology, Counselor Education, or related field.
- Evidence of or potential for scholarly productivity.
- Evidence of or potential for university teaching excellence in rehabilitation, community and general counseling courses.
- Ability to supervise clinical work and advise graduate counseling students.
- Certified Rehabilitation Counselor (CRC) or eligibility for CRC.

Desired qualifications:

- Rehabilitation counseling experience.
- Experience in state/federal rehabilitation systems and/or non-profit/profit rehabilitation systems.
- Potential for program and/or departmental leadership.
- Experience in grant writing or grant development.
- Demonstrated dedication to multicultural education (e.g., GLBT, ethnic groups, class, and disability status).

Responsibilities:

- Teach rehabilitation and general counseling courses.
- Participate in community service and committee work at the departmental and university levels as well as professional organization committees and conferences.
- Engage in scholarly activity (e.g., research, publications, grants).
- Participate in community service.

To apply:

Send a letter of application, along with Curriculum Vita, 3 recent letters of recommendation (within the past two years), verification of degree (or expected date of degree), and if possible sample publications and teaching evaluation data to: Chair, Hiring Committee, Department of Counseling, Burk Hall 524 College of Health and Human Services, San Francisco State University, 1600 Holloway Ave., San Francisco, CA 94132-1722. Individuals from ethnic minority groups, women and persons with disabilities are encouraged to apply. SFSU is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer.