Financial Aid, Scholarships, & Fellowships

CSU-Wide
Chancellor's Doctoral Incentive Program (CDIP): $10,000/year while enrolled in a doctoral program. Must teach at CSU at completion of the doctorate.

At SF State
- Graduate Equity Fellowship: For currently enrolled students up to $2800.
- College Scholarship Program: For students of Hispanic heritage [www.hsf.net]

From the Department of Counseling
- Provost Scholar Award: Reduced tuition for out of states students
- MFT/Mental Health Services Act Scholarship: $18,500 (competitive). 2nd year students only.
- Rehabilitation Counselor Training Program Scholarships:
  - $5000 stipend (amount may vary) per year for students working towards their master’s degree in Rehabilitation Counseling.¹

¹“Payback clause: For each year in which the student receives this stipend, students are required to work for two years in a public vocational rehabilitation agency or a non-profit rehabilitation agency. Pending funding availability.
- Limited Research Assistantships to work with various faculty members.
- Virginia Lee Block Scholarship: $100 (variable amount given each year).
- Distinguished Student Award: $1500 total per year (up to three students).
- Ida Sweeney Le Blanc Award: $1000 each (three per year).

Visit our website at www.counseling.sfsu.edu for detailed information. For general financial aid and tuition information, including student employment, visit the Financial Aid website at www.sfsu.edu/~finaid.