

2019 CACREP Vital Statistics Survey of Student Outcomes*
Department of Counseling
San Francisco State University

CACREP-accredited program	Number of students enrolled in 2019-2020	Number of graduates in May 2019	Completion rate	Licensure or certification examination pass rate	Job placement rate of May 2019 graduates who were actively seeking employment
Career Counseling	5	3	100%	NA	100%
Clinical Rehabilitation and Mental Health Counseling (CRMH); formerly Rehabilitation Counseling	8 – CRMH	3 - CRMH	100%	NA	100%
College Counseling	29	7	100%	NA	100%
Gerontological Counseling	0	0	0%	NA	0%
Marriage, Family and Child Counseling	50	15	100%	LMFT Clinical Exam 93% pass rate; Law & Ethics Exam 91% pass rate*	100%
School Counseling	32	6	100%	100%	100%

*Information for this table based on student records, online alumni survey responses, and our best knowledge.
 Based on September 2019 online survey, n=17.
 Rehabilitation Counseling and CRMH Counseling were CORE-accredited. CRMH grandparented in to CACREP on July 1, 2017, following the merger between CORE and CACREP. Specialization now called Clinical Mental Health Counseling, which has 10 students currently enrolled.
 *Information for individuals taking exams for the first time from Jan 1 – June 30, 2019, according to California Board of Behavioral Sciences (BBS) data.